If accepted for membership, I agree to abide by all rules and policies. I also agree to perform all of the following duty obligations:

1. Assist with Docks-In activities in the spring
2. Serve on race committee once a year
3. Assist with Docks-Out activities in the fall
4. Serve an additional "deck duty" (such as picnic committee, grounds keeping, etc.)

I understand that failure to perform all duty obligations may mean termination of my membership for the following year. I also understand that memberships are not transferable.

Hold Harmless Certificate

The undersigned member of the Fenton Sailing Club will indemnify and hold harmless the Fenton Sailing Club against any liability, loss or expense incurred or suffered in consequence either of bodily injury to said undersigned member, any member of his/her immediate family or any guest of said member or any damage to any property due to any negligent or willful act or omission of any member of the Fenton Sailing Club or its agents or members, arising out of or in connection with the performance of the club's activities to include the following by way of illustration and not limitation: racing, grounds maintenance, installation of docks, removal of docks and property improvement projects. It is understood that this indemnity and hold harmless agreement will apply only in the event that the club's liability insurance is not adequate to compensate an individual for bodily injury. This indemnity will apply to any cause of action which the aforementioned parties may have arising out of club activities.
